

THE BOOK OF DANIEL

Part 1 – When Culture Shifts

(Daniel 1:1-6) In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it. And the Lord delivered Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, along with some of the articles of the temple of God. These he carried off to the temple of his god in Babylonia and put in the treasure house of his god. Then the king ordered Ashpenaz, chief of his court officials, to bring in some of the Israelites from the royal family and the nobility—young men without any physical defect, handsome, showing aptitude for every kind of learning, well informed, quick to understand, and qualified to serve in the king's palace. He was to teach them the language and literature of the Babylonians. The king assigned them a daily amount of food and wine from the king's table. They were to be trained for three years, and after that they were to enter the king's service. Among these were some from Judah: Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah.

When Culture Shifts

(Daniel 1:7) The chief official gave them new names: to Daniel, the name Belteshazzar; to Hananiah, Shadrach; to Mishael, Meshach; and to Azariah, Abednego.

1. It will try to _____ you.

(Daniel 1:8) But Daniel resolved not to defile himself with the royal food and wine, and he asked the chief official for permission not to defile himself this way.

2. It will try to _____ you.

(Daniel 1:11-14) Daniel then said to the guard whom the chief official had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah, "Please test your servants for ten days: Give us nothing but vegetables to eat and water to drink. Then compare our appearance with that of the young men who eat the royal food, and treat your servants in accordance with what you see." So he agreed to this and tested them for ten days.

3. It will try to _____ you.

Ten Times Better

(Daniel 1:20) In every matter of wisdom and understanding about which the king questioned them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanterers in his whole kingdom.

✓ Will I _____ or will _____ ?

✓ Will my _____ come from God or
from the world?

(Romans 6:3 TLB) For sin's power over us was broken when we became Christians and were baptized to become a part of Jesus Christ.

1. It will try to rename you.

(Daniel 1:8) But Daniel resolved not to defile himself with the royal food and wine, and he asked the chief official for permission not to defile himself this way.

2. It will try to tame you.

(Daniel 1:11-14) Daniel then said to the guard whom the chief official had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah, "Please test your servants for ten days: Give us nothing but vegetables to eat and water to drink. Then compare our appearance with that of the young men who eat the royal food, and treat your servants in accordance with what you see." So he agreed to this and tested them for ten days.

3. It will try to claim you.

Ten Times Better

(Daniel 1:20) In every matter of wisdom and understanding about which the king questioned them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanterers in his whole kingdom.

✓ Will I change the world or will the world change me?

✓ Will my identity come from God or
from the world?

(Romans 6:3 TLB) For sin's power over us was broken when we became Christians and were baptized to become a part of Jesus Christ.
