

(Matthew 5:14-16 TLB) You are the world's light—a city on a hill, glowing in the night for all to see. Don't hide your light! Let it shine for all; let your good deeds glow for all to see, so that they will praise your heavenly Father.

The Most Excellent Way

(1 Corinthians 12:27, 31) Now you are the body of Christ, and each one of you is a part of it... And now I will show you the most excellent way.

1. _____ to them.

(Matthew 5:13) You are the salt of the earth...

2. Build _____ with them.

(Hebrews 10:23-25) Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for He who promised is faithful. And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

3. Share _____ with them.

(Ecclesiastes 4:8-12) There was a man all alone; he had neither son nor brother. There was no end to his toil... Two are better than one, because they have a good return for their work: If one falls down, his friend can help him up. But pity the man who falls and has no one to help him up! Also, if two lie down together, they will keep warm. But how can one keep warm alone? Though one may be overpowered, two can defend themselves. A cord of three strands is not quickly broken.

(James 5:16) Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person is powerful and effective.

4. Connect them _____.

(2 Corinthians 5:20) We are therefore Christ's ambassadors, as though God were making His appeal through us.

(2 Corinthians 2:14b-15 NLT) Now He uses us to spread the knowledge of Christ everywhere, like a sweet perfume. Our lives are a Christ-like fragrance rising up to God. But this fragrance is perceived differently by those who are being saved and by those who are perishing.
