1. Become _____.

(2 Corinthians 5:20 NLT) So we are Christ's ambassadors; God is making His appeal through us.

(1 Corinthians 3:6 LB) My work was to plant the seed in your hearts, and Apollos' work was to water it, but it was God, not we, who made the garden grow in your hearts.

2. Commit to _____.

Pray that the Father would draw them to Jesus. (John 6:44)

Pray against the spirit that blinds their minds. (2 Corinthians 4:4)

Pray that they come to know God relationally. (Romans 8:15)

Pray that believers will cross their paths and enter into positive relationships with them. (Matthew 9:38)

Pray for a revelation of who Jesus is and what He has done for them. (Ephesians 1:17)

3. Show you _____.

(Luke 19:1-10 TLB) As Jesus was passing through Jericho, a man named Zacchaeus, one of the most influential Jews in the Roman tax-collecting business (and, of course, a very rich man), tried to get a look at Jesus, but he was too short to see over the crowds. So he ran ahead and climbed into a sycamore tree beside the road, to watch from there. When Jesus came by, He looked up at Zacchaeus and called him by name! "Zacchaeus!" He said. "Quick! Come down! For I am going to be a guest in your home today!" Zacchaeus hurriedly climbed down and took Jesus to his house in great excitement and joy. But the crowds were displeased. "He has gone to be the guest of a notorious sinner," they grumbled. Meanwhile, Zacchaeus stood before the Lord and said, "Sir, from now on I will give half my wealth to the poor, and if I find I have overcharged anyone on his taxes, I will penalize myself by giving him back four times as much!" Jesus told him, "This shows that salvation has come to this home today. This man was one of the lost sons of Abraham, and I, the Messiah, have come to search for and to save such souls as his."

(1 Corinthians 9:19-23) Though I am free and belong to no man, I make myself a slave to everyone, to win as many as possible... I have become all things to all men so that by all possible means I might save some. I do all this for the sake of the gospel, that I may share in its blessings.

4. Be ready to _____.

(1 Peter 3:15) Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have.

(Acts 20:24 NCV) The most important thing is that I complete my mission, the work that the Lord Jesus gave me – to tell people the Good News about God's grace.
